

Public Service Announcement

Situation 2

Keith gets really mad when his girlfriend, Carrie, talks to her friends about their relationship. He wants her to keep everything they say private because it's no one else's business.

Sometimes, it may not seem like a big deal to tell your friends about certain aspects of your relationship; however your partner may feel differently. That being said, if you feel as though the person you are with restricts you from telling other people anything and demands that everything remains private, there could definitely be an issue.

What concerns would each of the following have:

Keith

Carrie

Carrie's friends and family

What message do we the provide to the public regarding an unhealthy relationship like Keith & Carrie?

How much do you think youth know about this topic?